

Ms. Cristita Alcober (Filipina, 68 years old) Photo by Takashi Itoh

Not over for her.

Japan went to war in 1931. At first, it seemed to the Japanese that it was just a war to establish a "new order" in the Korean Peninsula, China and other areas in Asia.

In reality, the war lasted 15 years and the "new order" never came. Instead, it only left pain, misery and death to the people of Asia.

Many Japanese, however, still believe that it was a war to establish a "new order", especially those who went to the front line and know that happened there at that time.

Those who know the truth do not talk about what they did-forcing thousands of women into sexual slavery.

The Japanese government is not an exception. It was the imperial Japanese forces which organized the military brothels.

Dutch, Chinese, Korean, Filipino, Indonesian, Malaysian and Taiwanese women and girls were raped systematically and repeatedly under the supervision of the imperial Japanese forces.

The surviving victims are trying to win redress from the Japanese government which argues that the issue of war compensation and reparation was settled through bilateral treaties.

We appeal for your help in urging the Japanese government to apologize and pay individual compensation to these women who are seeking relief from the painful and degrading experiences suffered in their younger days-experiences which have affected their lives for nearly half a century.

The International Campaign to Realize Redress for Wartime Victims

(ICRRWV)

Address: 4-5-16-402, Iidabashi, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 102 JAPAN

Fax: 813-3237-0287

For Donations: CITIBANK SHINJUKU-MINAMIGUCHI BRANCH 003-93190492
ICRRWV

Please add your voice!

To: Prime Minister TOMIICHI MURAYAMA 2-3-1, Nagatacho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 100 JAPAN

Fax: 813-3581-3883

I strongly urge the Japanese government to grant timely and appropriate redress to surviving war victims.

Name

Address

董博

1-15-95

聯合老人中心老人節向你問好。
 時間過得很快，你已將近一個月了。
 一切都好嗎？
 這一陣子，過年過節，兒子，女兒從不學
 回的渡暑假，所以沒有給你寫信。現好
 好上，趙牙匠士捐助的300元，請查收。
 那2印也將開資料寄給我，他將會
 寄一份給你，如果沒有收到，請來信通知。

買賣禮券電視台訪問老年慰安婦
 還是有興趣，我們大家也支持這個項目。
 另外，也是最重要的是授權代表的工作。
 如果有頭緒馬上聯絡。

我的最好 Fax 跟電話一樣，是 (501)
 567-8880. (順乘上日本團體成立的國防軍毒嗶 嗶價戰爭受害倖存者救濟會前先用印台印信)
 還有一個辦法，是如果你打電話找
 我，先指定找 Mr. CHAN 一陣先生聽
 電話，他一是不在，我听了電話
 就會說打不起他不在，然後我
 會馬上打回覆電話給你。

這個暗號可以省了很多麻煩，我不在
 家裏就不用付電話費，以免浪費。

記得打電話是北京章先生找陳先生
 也可以自定好時間，一般是我晚上6時-11時
 即你們時間早上6時至11時，我通常會
 在。

52
 就平快樂。

祝 林翠玉

World War II is not over in Asia

Ms. Cristina Alcober (Filipina, 68 years old) Photo by Takashi Itoh

Not over for her.

Japan went to war in 1931. At first, it seemed to the Japanese that it was just a war to establish a "new order" in the Korean Peninsula, China and other areas in Asia.

In reality, the war lasted 15 years and the "new order" never came. Instead it only left pain, misery and death to the people of Asia.

Many Japanese, however, still believe that it was a war to establish a "new order", especially those who went to the frontline and know what happened there at that time.

Those who know the truth do not talk about what they did - forcing thousands of women into sexual slavery.

The Japanese government is not an exception. It was the Imperial Japanese forces which organized the military brothels.

Dutch, Chinese, Korean, Filipino, Indonesian, Malaysian and Taiwanese women and girls were raped systematically and repeatedly under the supervision of the Imperial Japanese forces.

The surviving victims are trying to win redress from the Japanese government which argues that the issue of war compensation and reparation was settled through bilateral treaties.

We appeal for your help in urging the Japanese government to apologize and pay individual compensation to these women who are seeking relief from the painful and degrading experiences suffered in their younger days - experiences which have affected their lives for nearly half a century.

The International Campaign to Realize Redress for Wartime Victims (ICRRWV)

Address: 4-3-16-402, Suidabashi, Chiyoda-ku,
Tokyo, 〒102 JAPAN

Fax: 813-3237-0287

For Donations: CITIBANK SHINJUKU-
MINAMIGUCHI BRANCH
003-93190492 ICRRWV

Please add your voice!

To: Prime Minister TOMICHI MURAYAMA
2-3-1, Nagatscho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 〒100 JAPAN
Fax: 813-3581-3883

I strongly urge the Japanese government to grant timely and appropriate redress to surviving war victims.

Name _____

Address _____

12/19/94

NY Times A-119